

8 - Solutions - תרגול פסיכומטרי

1. The men in the audience are numbered.

האנשים בקהל ספורים.

- (1) There are only few men in the audience.
- (2) Women are the majority of the audience.
- (3) Not all the people can be counted.
- (4) There are ten men in the audience.

2. It takes more than a well-known teacher to become a good pianist.

דרוש יותר ממורה נודע כדי להיות פסנתרן טוב.

- (1) A good pianist should become a famous teacher.
- (2) If you want to become a good pianist, get a good teacher.
- (3) Being famous isn't enough for a pianist to teach.
- (4) Having a famous teacher will not necessarily make you a good pianist.

3. A good cause doesn't always justify the means.

מטרה טובה אינה מצדיקה תמיד את האמצעים.

- (1) The ways of reaching a good objective are not necessarily justified.
- (2) The act was justified because the means were good.
- (3) What a person says and what he means might be different.
- (4) The good does not always excuse the evil.

4. The cars were moving on despite of the damaged and blocked roads.

המכוניות המשיכו לנוע למרות הדרכים ההרוסות והחסומות.

- (1) The traffic continued despite of the difficulties.
- (2) Damaged cars blocked the roads.
- (3) Despite the storm, buses still ran.
- (4) The busses didn't pass over the damaged roads.